

criminal penalties from this set of statutes, as opposed to the prior set of statutes with respect to those who violate the act, as distinguished from those who are not within the act, and I am wondering if that really makes sense, or do you not need to reestablish that existing criminal penalty with regard to violations that are within the act? Another little small but I think important aspect of the bill that seems to me unworkable...

PRESIDENT MOUL: One minute.

SENATOR BEUTLER: ...has to do with allowing these interns to work. It says they can work under the supervision of a licensed private investigator, or if they are employed by an agency. Well, by saying "or if they are employed by an agency" that means they don't have to be under, as I read it, the direct supervision of a licensed private investigator. If they work for an agency, the only requirement of the agency, itself, is that one member, or even a member of the board of directors of the agency have the appropriate qualifications, but if it happens to be a member of the board of directors who is not involved in the day-to-day management and operation of the agency, then that intern who could be hired would, in effect, be under nobody's supervisions, as I see it, and it would seem to me to make sense to require...

PRESIDENT MOUL: Time. Thank you, Senator Beutler.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Spare me a moment or two, Madam President. Thank you.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Thank you, Senator Beutler. Senator Beyer.

SENATOR BEYER: Well, Senator Chambers, I have got a couple of questions to ask you now. One, I do want to respond to the fact that I said Mr. Kuchel was not representing the Crime Commission. The director said that he was representing his own opinion. The commission has not taken an official position. So I just wanted to bring that point out.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay.

SENATOR BEYER: We did call and check on that. If, and we have had an interim study on this bill during the time, so I guess there was no input from you at the particular time on it. If
